The Loft is a high quality self catering holiday apartment in the centre of Chideock, Dorset, a historic village within minutes of the beach at Seatown and surrounded by beautiful countryside. Perfect for long or short breaks, whether you're looking for a walking holiday, a romantic break or a relaxing time by the coast.

The Loft apartment, which sleeps 2 people, is a newly created stone addition to the 16th Century cottage of Chimneys, equipped with everything you might possibly need for a very enjoyable stay. The apartment is located in the centre of Chideock.

The village of Chideock has two pubs, a tea shop, a post office and general store, all within brief walking distance of the apartment. There is also The Anchor Inn next to the beach at Seatown.

Seatown beach which lies below Golden Cap (the highest point on the south coast) is made up of shingle and pebbles with the cliffs behind layered with Jurassic fossils.

Chideock and Seatown are close to Lyme Regis, Bridport, Weymouth, Charmouth, Eype, Abbotsbury and Burton Bradstock. And The Loft is just over 10 minutes drive away from Hugh Fearnley–Whittingstall's River Cottage.

Upon your arrival you will not have to worry about having that first cup of tea or coffee after a long journey, tea and coffee, as well as milk and sugar are provided so you can start to relax as soon as you've put your bags down. You'll also find a free chilled bottle of white wine will be at hand. So just relax!

Bedding and towels are also provided and are changed on a weekly basis if staying for more than one week.

The apartment sleeps 2 people; with a double bedroom and a lounge area. The apartment, although very modern with full central heating, also exudes a warm cottage charm, this feel is assisted by the varnished wooden floor, oak windows and roof lights.

The lounge area has a comfortable sofa and two relaxing chairs. The TV complete with Freeview (including Film Four) and a DVD player provides great choice for your viewing if you want to stay in. There is also a CD/Radio for your enjoyment. The bookcase has a selection of books available if you fancy a relaxing read.

The kitchen area is complete with oven, ceramic hob, extractor fan, fridge with freezer box, microwave, kettle and toaster. All the necessary kitchen utensils are here if you would like to cook a meal and stay in.
